AUGUST 2017

Summer, Point Loma Style

The Point Loma Summer Concert Series kicked off its 17th year and Point Loma Assembly was there. Thanks to the generosity of Sponsor Dottie Laub, we were once again able to promote our great organization to our friends and neighbors at our booth. See poster on page 4 for weekly band schedule.

Good Bye Jet Fuel Pipeline

The remnants of the Navy's Miramar jet fuel pipeline are gone from our waterfront trail, removed or covered over to be discovered by archaeologists in another millennium.

New pipes are now appearing. They're not attractive but they are temporary. They will provide water to launch new vegetation. The workers have been out there every workday and in addition to working hard in some of our hottest weather, they have been unfailingly polite.
