JANUARY 2018

Book Drive A Hit!

Our Book Drive to benefit Cabrillo Elementary School enabled us to present over 400 books to the school librarian, Vanessa Stokely, who was also our speaker, at our December meeting. A big thank you to all our members who donated so generously, to La Playa Books (who partnered with us), Kerri DeRosier who helped publicize the drive and especially, Susan Hoekenga, who coordinated this great idea to benefit a deserving cause.

Our January 11 Meeting

Our speaker Dr. Jamie Gates, Director of the Center for Justice & Reconciliation at Point Loma Nazarene University, co-leads the groundbreaking research project on sex trafficking in the San Diego region. He founded and directs the Human Trafficking Research and Data Advisory Roundtable for San Diego County, and established the Beauty for Ashes Scholarship Fund for survivors of human trafficking to get their college degree.

Doors open at 3:30 p.m., program to follow.

Our Mission:

To promote literary, social, educational, philanthropic, civic, and artistic work, and to restore and maintain the Assembly building at 3035 Talbot Street.

San Diego During WWII

What do you know about San Diego during World War II? It wasn't all about the military - some people lived and worked here and tried to live normal lives. La Playa Trail Association presents Linda Canada, who will speak about what it was like to spend the war years on the home front here in San Diego, and will share stories gleaned from the San Diego History Center's oral history collection.

January 16 at 5:30 p.m. Point Loma Assembly. Suggested donation $10.00.

Point Loma Architectural Series Continues

The 9th presentation in the series is on Tuesday, January 30, 5-7 p.m. at the Assembly. Kiley Wallace, Architectural Historian will speak on Streamline Moderne Architecture in Point Loma. What is it and where is it? It's rounded corners simplified forms and walls of block glass reflecting the frugal times of the depression. Several homes and businesses in Point Loma feature the style. Presented by Caroline Glasner and Susan Diamond of Pacific Sotheby's International Realty, the lecture is free but a reservation is required.

Call Susan Diamond at 619-977-9190, email Susan.Diamond@sothebysrealty.com or register at Eventbrite.com.

The irrepressible Dorothea Laub led the Sun Harbor Chorus, shown here performing at the Assembly on 12/9, in wishing all a Merry Christmas!

Building the Wall: Six Performances Only

This is a play you won't stop thinking about.

A powerful dystopian drama by Robert Schenkkan imagines life in the Donald Trump era two years from now as two characters increasingly come to grips with their worst fears. This thought-provoking drama, directed by Jerry Pilato, runs Fridays, Saturdays & Sundays January 19-28, 2017 at Point Loma Assembly. Details and tickets at pointlomaplayhouse.com.
