Membership News

By Pam Hamilton Lester, Membership Chair

Membership has reached 130 members for the period July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022. Please welcome our newest member, Maureen Stapleton. Individual members joining now through June 30, 2022 pay dues of $50; two members in the same household may join for $75. You may want to reach out to prospective members to let them know this may be the time to explore membership with these reduced dues. All members receive the Newsletter and are welcome at regular Assembly meetings, typically held the second Thursday of the month, doors open and refreshments available at 4:30 pm. There are occasional joint meetings with other organizations or special events. Please invite prospective members to a meeting! And . . . here's a bit more about Business Sponsorships. Business Sponsors support the Assembly annually with a donation of $250. Business Sponsors are acknowledged in each Newsletter and a Business Sponsor is often highlighted in an article. They are listed in the Annual Directory and recognized at Assembly meetings. Surely you know a business owner who would like to support the Assembly as a Business Sponsor! Please contact me and I can provide you with a prospective member or business sponsor letter and application and an Assembly brochure, in an envelope you can give or mail to your prospects. Or if you prefer, provide me with the names and contact information for prospective members or business sponsors and I'll do the rest! Please consider referring prospects to our website at PointLomaAssembly.org—it's an excellent introduction to our organization and our beautiful Assembly Hall. THANK YOU for YOUR membership!

The Artificial Jungle, by Charles Ludlam is a hilarious, campy send-up of the Film Noir style of The Postman Always Rings Twice. In this pulp fiction parody, all the emotions are there, lust, greed, guilt, double-entendre, silliness, ventriloquism, and of course...
MURDER.

*Message from Point Loma Assembly
President Pam Fuchs*

This short month leaves me with two short things to say to you. One is to encourage you to invite friends and attend our meeting and enjoy the Skylarks. I miss seeing you. The second is to issue to you a call to meet and talk about ongoing community needs and the impact that we members of the Assembly might have. The discussion is scheduled for February 24 from 2 to 4 at the Assembly Hall. Please respond to pointlomaassembly@gmail.com that you will attend. You will receive an email confirmation regarding the meeting.

A Better World: Heroes
Working for the Greater Good

Curated by Susan Brubaker

and Lyric Montgomery Kinard

There are those among us who make personal sacrifices, who forgo comfort and safety while striving to make the world a better place. They are persistent and dogged in their determination to lift, to save, to shed light, to inspire.

January 15 – April 3, 2022 Classic Wheels, Rusted Memories

The “penultimate recycling program.”

That was the image that came to the mind of artist internationally award winning quilt maker, designer and teacher Esterita Austin when she first came across a junkyard of rusted vintage cars that were being reclaimed by nature...

Nature takes what people have made and, over time, reduces it from rust to dust. As this process evolves, unique sculptural forms emerge. Living vegetation takes on static rusting metal and creates something new as it destroys something old. These forms inspired Esterita to create a whole series of pieces based on these old automobile bodies. Esterita employs her own technique of transferring paint to fabric. In these works, she has chosen not to paint directly onto fabric because “the drag of the brush on the weave of the fabric kept the paint from gliding smoothly and created too much resistance.” Wanting to achieve a “slick surface” that would allow brush strokes to glide and paints to blend easily, she turned to a transparent organza to realize her vision. Her technique includes painting on silicone-coated baking parchment paper and transferring it to transparent nylon organza with the aid of Mistyfuse®.
